§ 3-6-307.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter to the contrary, if a person receives as compensation for lobbying only reimbursement for actual out-of-pocket personal expenses, and if such person receives such reimbursement for more than five (5) days per year, then such person shall register as a lobbyist and shall comply with all lobbyist requirements imposed pursuant to this chapter, but shall be exempt from payment of the occupational privilege tax on lobbyists imposed by § 67-4-1702(a)(1).

(c) Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter to the contrary, if an individual or entity employs, retains or otherwise arranges for one or more persons to engage in lobbying for compensation, and if the only compensation paid is reimbursement for actual out-of-pocket personal expenses, and if such reimbursement is not paid for more than five (5) days per person per year, then such individual or entity is not an employer of a lobbyist for purposes of this chapter.

(d) For purposes of this section, the term "out-of-pocket personal expenses" includes such things as the lobbyist registration fee, legislative information services material, copying expenses, transportation costs, parking fees, personal lodging and food expenses incurred while actually engaging in lobbying.
